We are proud to be members of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity ("LCLD"). LCLD was formed in 2009 to advance diversity and inclusion in the legal profession. The organization comprises approximately 189 corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners dedicated to a truly diverse and inclusive legal profession. The leaders who make up the LCLD share the belief that for the profession of the law to prosper, it is necessary to hire, engage, retain, and promote the best talent. A critical component of having the best talent is having diverse talent.

Internship Description:

The Legal Group of The Clorox Company is seeking two or three 1L Legal Summer Interns as part of the 1L LCLD Scholars Program. The 1L LCLD Scholars Program provides first-year law students, who are committed to diversity and inclusiveness, the developmental opportunity to work side-by-side with attorneys and other legal specialists on legal issues and to learn more about potential career paths within the legal profession and what it's like to be an in-house lawyer. At The Clorox Company, the 1L LCLD Scholars will get practical hands-on experience in several areas. The areas of focus include Intellectual Property, Governance, Regulatory, Litigation, International, Compliance, Marketing, and Advertising, among others. We are seeking applicants who share Clorox's values of fostering diversity and inclusion (applicants of all backgrounds are considered and encouraged to apply) and interested in gaining corporate legal experience in an in-house corporate environment.
