Mehrnaz Boroumand Smith, Partner, Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP

SANFORD HARTMAN is responsible for the management of the law department, which provides legal services both to Pacific Gas & Electric Company and its parent company, PG&E Corporation. He was named to his current position in June 2006. Prior to joining PG&E, he was Vice President and General Counsel, and a Director of National Electric & Gas Transmission.

Mr. Hartman has been practicing energy law for more than 30 years. He was responsible for the negotiation of multiple types of agreements associated with approximately $4 billion of energy transactions. In addition, he has practiced before the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, the Federal Energy Regulation Commission, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, and various state agencies and commissions, including those in Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Florida, Washington, Oregon, and California.

Mr. Hartman earned a J.D. degree from Temple University and a bachelor's degree from Drew University. Upon graduation from law school, he served as law clerk to the Hon. John Biggs, Jr. of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.

MAUREEN SHEEHY serves as Managing Partner of Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton and serves on the firm's Executive Committee. Her practice focuses on complex business litigation, intellectual property litigation, and unfair competition matters. She has extensive experience leading litigation teams in both federal and state courts, as well as before the United States International Trade Commission. Her business litigation experience includes representation of clients in business torts, breach of fiduciary duties, officer and director liabilities, and related indemnification claims, as well as a range of unfair competition matters, whether individual or representative actions. She has also handled a range of intellectual property matters ranging from trade secret theft claims to licensing disputes and patent infringement claims. Whether representing a Fortune 50 company or a privately held company, Ms. Sheehy works with the client to develop a strategy that is built around the client's business needs and objectives.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Sheehy was a Partner at a litigation boutique firm in Emeryville, California. Ms. Sheehy was recognized as a Northern California "Super Lawyer" for Intellectual Property Litigation in 2012 by Super Lawyers magazine.
