

Lead Counsel, Oculus

(Menlo Park, CA)

Careers at Oculus
A Facebook Company

Oculus seeks a Lead Counsel for its Oculus Virtual Reality business. Oculus invents, manufactures and sells industry leading virtual reality headsets and operates a global virtual reality content and social platform. This position develops and provides global law and regulation advice, with a focus on mobile hardware and software virtual reality, and deal negotiation and drafting for our platform and content, including our immersive virtual experiences. Success in this position will require applying a complex and evolving global legal and policy framework to new and innovative products and services. This is a unique opportunity to work on cutting-edge issues in a fast-paced start-up environment, as Oculus leads the field of virtual reality.

Responsibilities

- Significant industry experience and legal expertise for mobile content, hardware and carrier ecosystem globally
- Be a product counseling and transactional generalist, supporting business objectives related to consumer products, live ops services, games, videos, business applications, e-commerce & payments, developer SDKs, marketing, and privacy
- Build positive and influential relationships with senior executives, product teams and peers across Oculus and Facebook
- Collaborate with subject matters experts at Oculus and Facebook to analyze and communicate legal risks.

Requirements

- 6+ years combined law firm and in-house experience with cutting edge global technologies, including mobile, games, and social networking, with international and litigation experience a plus
- Active curiosity and experience with emerging technology products and services
- Ideal candidate will have demonstrated success building influence with tech entrepreneur executives and advising product and content teams directly
- JD required
- Position is based in Menlo Park, California.