

Deputy General Counsel, Global Regulatory & Competition

(Menlo Park, CA - Washington, DC)

Facebook was built to help people connect and share, and over the last decade our tools have played a critical part in changing how people around the world communicate with one another. With over a billion people using the service and more than fifty offices around the globe, a career at Facebook offers countless ways to make an impact in a fast growing organization.

Facebook seeks a highly motivated, experienced first chair lawyer to serve as Deputy General Counsel, Global Regulatory and Competition. This position will manage the company's legal position and strategy on competition, telecommunications and other regulatory matters and related product and business strategies around the globe. This position will lead and develop global legal teams focusing on competition, telecommunications and non-privacy regulatory matters. The position is based at the company's Menlo Park or Washington D.C. offices.

Responsibilities

- Represent company in connection with regulatory inquiries and consultations encompassing competition, telecommunications and non-privacy regulatory frameworks
- Develop and implement long-term regulatory strategy in conjunction with Policy and business leadership
- Develop legal strategy in connection with competition review of mergers and acquisitions by US and European regulators
- Oversee legal advice regarding impact of competition and telecommunications laws on current and planned product and business initiatives
- Manage legal compliance with global telecommunications laws
- Manage and develop global legal team specializing in competition, telecommunications, and non-privacy regulatory area.

Requirements

- Significant first chair experience in regulatory actions and law making proceedings.
- Significant competition experience, including deep knowledge of competition frameworks in the US and Europe and engagement with applicable regulatory bodies in merger review and/or investigative contexts.
- Experience with telecommunications regulatory frameworks and regulatory developments affecting Internet-based services.
- Experience representing technology and Internet companies in regulatory matters strongly preferred.
- Demonstrated ability to develop innovative and pragmatic approaches and business-focused solutions to regulatory challenges and developments.
- Excellent people manager with demonstrated ability to manage and build teams.
- Excellent interpersonal skills with an absolute commitment to professionalism and collegiality.
- 12+ years legal experience.

- J.D. with membership in at least 1 state bar