

2016 LCLD Fellows Third Meeting

Please see the back of the card for clues.

Text photos from these San Diego landmarks and experiences to Caitlin Puffenberger, LCLD Communications Coordinator, at (540) 419-5639. Use discretion, as they may be included in the Third Meeting slideshow during the closing session.

@LCLD_rgrey @LoriLCLD #FellowsSD

The Seeley Stable	William Heath Davis House	Unconditional Surrender Statue	Tivoli Bar & Grill	Rustic Root Rooftop
Bazaar del Mundo Shops	Hand-Made Tortillas	Air & Space Museum	Historic Carousel, Seaport Village	Bea Evenson Fountain
Horton Plaza Park	Street Performers		Ghirardelli Ice Cream & Chocolate Shop	El Cid Statue
Petco Park	Spreckels Organ Pavilion	Tin Roof	Fire Station #4	Spanish Village Art Center
The Gaslamp Sign	Coronado Bridge	Tony Gwynn Statue	Tater Tots	Inez Grant Parker Memorial Rose Garden

- D1. A “well built and sturdy” two-story, square-sided, shingle-roofed barn that once stabled horses and housed stagecoaches.
- D2. A lively and colorful entry into the Old Town community, the shops at Bazaar del Mundo feature a vast selection of treasures and specialty items from around the world.
- D3. After some window shopping at the adjacent outdoor mall, grab a cup of joe and people-watch at this newly-renovated urban oasis.
- D4. Architecturally magnificent, this downtown ballpark is home to the San Diego Padres. (Free; guided daily tours $15/adult)
- D5. Built nearly 30 years ago, The Gaslamp Quarter Archway was a symbolic declaration that the City of San Diego was committed to continuing the redevelopment of Downtown.
- I1. Constructed in 1850, this ghostly house remains the oldest structure in the Gaslamp Quarter. ($5 Admission & self-guided tour)
- I2. Get your hands on delicious tortillas, available fresh and straight off the griddle on San Diego Avenue. ($2-$3)
- I3. Head to Seaport Village to explore charming shops, unique eateries, and diverse outdoor entertainers. Remember to tip if you take pictures.
- I4. Houses one of the world’s largest outdoor pipe organs.
- I5. It is notable among the world’s great bridges for the number and size of its concrete towers.
- E1. Locals call it the “kissing statue.”
- E2. Mint condition aircraft in a mint condition museum. ($19.50 Admission)
- E3. Free space!
- E4. One of the best places in the Gaslamp to catch musicians playing your favorite songs live.
- E5. Pay tribute to the San Diego icon fondly known as “Mr. Padre,” just beyond the outfield wall of Petco Park.
- G1. Gaslamp’s oldest bar! Famed lawman and San Diego legend, Wyatt Earp, was an early patron who used to come here to gamble and drink. (Most drinks under $10)
- G2. Ride this horse-drawn chariot round and round. ($3 per ride)
- G3. Satisfy your sweet tooth with a free chocolate square sample.
- G4. Serving San Diego’s East Village and surrounding areas, this is the oldest operating fire station in the city.
- G5. Stop by Bub’s at the Ballpark for happy hour, a local favorite for tots and beer! (Happy Hour, M-F, 3-6 pm, half-off tots, about $7)
- O1. Take in the view and a “timeless” cocktail such as the “1980” cosmopolitan at this rooftop restaurant. (Cocktails $11-$15)
- O2. The fountain, built in 1972, serves as a tribute to park protector Bea Evenson who worked to protect the park’s architectural treasures.
- O3. The legendary hero of Spain is mounted on his horse, proudly holding a spear and shield.
- O4. Thirty-seven artist studios/galleries hosting daily art demonstrations featuring contemporary fine arts and crafts directly from San Diego County’s largest community of artists.
- O5. This garden displays approximately 1,600 roses and more than 130 varieties on a three-acre site full of fragrance, color, and beauty.

2016 LCLD Fellows Third Meeting

Please see the back of the card for clues.

Text photos from these San Diego landmarks and experiences to Caitlin Puffenberger, LCLD Communications Coordinator, at (540) 419-5639. Use discretion, as they may be included in the Third Meeting slideshow during the closing session.

@LCLD_rgrey @LoriLCLD #FellowsSD

Taco Time	El Cid Statue	Star of India	Tony Gwynn Statue	Street Performers
Whaley House	Bea Evenson Fountain	Ghirardelli Ice Cream & Chocolate Shop	Tin Roof	Hand-Made Tortillas
Margarita Madness	Central Library		Unconditional Surrender Statue	William Heath Davis House
Inez Grant Parker Memorial Rose Garden	Rustic Root Rooftop	Historic Carousel, Seaport Village	Coronado Bridge	The Gaslamp Sign
Spanish Village Art Center	Tater Tots	Tivoli Bar & Grill	Spreckels Organ Pavilion	Petco Park

- D1. With yummy, inexpensive options around every corner, find out why San Diegans think every day should be Taco Tuesday. ($5)
- D2. Visit the house that was built where a graveyard once was. ($8 Daytime Admission; $13 Evening Admission)
- D3. Try a Margarita! Café Coyote’s certified “Tequila House” has over 120 tequila options. ($9-$16)
- D4. This garden displays approximately 1,600 roses and more than 130 varieties on a three-acre site full of fragrance, color, and beauty.
- D5. Thirty-seven artist studios/galleries hosting daily art demonstrations featuring contemporary fine arts and crafts directly from San Diego County’s largest community of artists.
- I1. The legendary hero of Spain is mounted on his horse, proudly holding a spear and shield.
- I2. The fountain, built in 1972, serves as a tribute to park protector Bea Evenson who worked to protect the park’s architectural treasures.
- I3. The 366,673 square-foot, nine-story, Central Library features more than a million books, an outdoor garden/courtyard, a domed reading room, and more!
- I4. Take in the view and a “timeless” cocktail such as the “1980” cosmopolitan at this rooftop restaurant. (Cocktails $11-$15)
- I5. Stop by Bub’s at the Ballpark for happy hour, a local favorite for tots and beer! (Happy Hour, M-F, 3-6 pm, half-off tots, about $7)
- E1. Step aboard the world’s oldest active sailing ship. ($16 Admission)
- E2. Satisfy your sweet tooth with a free chocolate square sample.
- E3. Free space!
- E4. Ride this horse-drawn chariot round and round. ($3 per ride)
- E5. Gaslamp’s oldest bar! Famed lawman and San Diego legend, Wyatt Earp, was an early patron who used to come here to gamble and drink. (Most drinks under $10)
- G1. Pay tribute to the San Diego icon fondly known as “Mr. Padre,” just beyond the outfield wall of Petco Park.
- G2. One of the best places in the Gaslamp to catch musicians playing your favorite songs live.
- G3. Locals call it the “kissing statue.”
- G4. It is notable among the world’s great bridges for the number and size of its concrete towers.
- G5. Houses one of the world’s largest outdoor pipe organs.
- O1. Head to Seaport Village to explore charming shops, unique eateries, and diverse outdoor entertainers. Remember to tip if you take pictures.
- O2. Get your hands on delicious tortillas, available fresh and straight off the griddle on San Diego Avenue. ($2-$3)
- O3. Constructed in 1850, this ghostly house remains the oldest structure in the Gaslamp Quarter. ($5 Admission & self-guided tour)
- O4. Built nearly 30 years ago, The Gaslamp Quarter Archway was a symbolic declaration that the City of San Diego was committed to continuing the redevelopment of Downtown.
- O5. Architecturally magnificent, this downtown ballpark is home to the San Diego Padres. (Free; guided daily tours $15/adult)

2016 LCLD Fellows Third Meeting

D I E G O

Please see the back of the card for clues.

Text photos from these San Diego landmarks and experiences to Caitlin Puffenberger, LCLD Communications Coordinator, at (540) 419-5639. Use discretion, as they may be included in the Third Meeting slideshow during the closing session.

@LCLD_rgrey @LoriLCLD #FellowsSD

Margarita Madness	Horton Plaza Park	Spreckels Organ Pavilion	Tony Gwynn Statue	USS Midway Museum
Whaley House	Petco Park	Coronado Bridge	Tivoli Bar & Grill	Tater Tots
Taco Time	The Gaslamp Sign		Historic Carousel, Seaport Village	Rustic Root Rooftop
The Seeley Stable	William Heath Davis House	Unconditional Surrender Statue	Ghirardelli Ice Cream & Chocolate Shop	Central Library
Bazaar del Mundo Shops	Hand-Made Tortillas	Tin Roof	Fire Station #4	Bea Evenson Fountain

- D1. Try a Margarita! Café Coyote's certified "Tequila House" has over 120 tequila options. ($9-$16)
- D2. Visit the house that was built where a graveyard once was. ($8 Daytime Admission; $13 Evening Admission)
- D3. With yummy inexpensive options around every corner, find out why San Diegans think every day should be Taco Tuesday. ($5)
- D4. A "well built and sturdy" two-story, square-sided, shingle-roofed barn that once stabled horses and housed stagecoaches.
- D5. A lively and colorful entry into the Old Town community, the shops at Bazaar del Mundo feature a vast selection of treasures and specialty items from around the world.
- I1. After some window shopping at the adjacent outdoor mall, grab a cup of joe and people-watch at this newly-renovated urban oasis.
- I2. Architecturally magnificent, this downtown ballpark is home to the San Diego Padres. (Free; guided daily tours $15/adult)
- I3. Built nearly 30 years ago, The Gaslamp Quarter Archway was a symbolic declaration that the City of San Diego was committed to continuing the redevelopment of Downtown.
- I4. Constructed in 1850, this ghostly house remains the oldest structure in the Gaslamp Quarter. ($5 Admission & self-guided tour)
- I5. Get your hands on delicious tortillas, available fresh and straight off the griddle on San Diego Avenue. ($2-$3)
- E1. Houses one of the world's largest outdoor pipe organs.
- E2. It is notable among the world's great bridges for the number and size of its concrete towers.
- E3. Free space!
- E4. Locals call it the "kissing statue."
- E5. One of the best places in the Gaslamp to catch musicians playing your favorite songs live.
- G1. Pay tribute to the San Diego icon fondly known as "Mr. Padre," just beyond the outfield wall of Petco Park.
- G2. Gaslamp's oldest bar! Famed lawman and San Diego legend, Wyatt Earp, was an early patron who used to come here to gamble and drink. (Most drinks under $10)
- G3. Ride this horse-drawn chariot round and round. ($3 per ride)
- G4. Satisfy your sweet tooth with a free chocolate square sample.
- G5. Serving San Diego's East Village and surrounding areas, this is the oldest operating fire station in the city.
- O1. She weighs almost 70,000 tons, is 1,001 ft. long, and 20 stories tall. She was the longest serving aircraft carrier in the U.S. Navy. ($20 Admission)
- O2. Stop by Bub's at the Ballpark for happy hour, a local favorite for tots and beer! (Happy Hour, M-F, 3-6 pm, half-off tots, about $7)
- O3. Take in the view and a "timeless" cocktail such as the "1980" cosmopolitan at this rooftop restaurant. (Cocktails $11-$15)
- O4. The 366,673 square-foot, nine-story, Central Library features more than a million books, an outdoor garden/courtyard, a domed reading room, and more!
- O5. The fountain, built in 1972, serves as a tribute to park protector Bea Evenson who worked to protect the park's architectural treasures.

2016 LCLD Fellows Third Meeting

Please see the back of the card for clues.

Text photos from these San Diego landmarks and experiences to Caitlin Puffenberger, LCLD Communications Coordinator, at (540) 419-5639. Use discretion, as they may be included in the Third Meeting slideshow during the closing session.

@LCLD_rgrey @LoriLCLD #FellowsSD

Petco Park	Street Performers	Taco Time	Tater Tots	Spreckels Organ Pavilion
Rustic Root Rooftop	Star of India	William Heath Davis House	Unconditional Surrender Statue	Hand-Made Tortillas
Tin Roof	Spanish Village Art Center		Historic Carousel, Seaport Village	Margarita Madness
Ghirardelli Ice Cream & Chocolate Shop	Bea Evenson Fountain	The Gaslamp Sign	El Cid Statue	The Seeley Stable
Coronado Bridge	Whaley House	Horton Plaza Park	Inez Grant Parker Memorial Rose Garden	Bazaar del Mundo Shops

- D1. Architecturally magnificent, this downtown ballpark is home to the San Diego Padres. (Free; guided daily tours $15/adult)
- D2. Take in the view and a “timeless” cocktail such as the “1980” cosmopolitan at this rooftop restaurant. (Cocktails $11-$15)
- D3. One of the best places in the Gaslamp to catch musicians playing your favorite songs live.
- D4. Satisfy your sweet tooth with a free chocolate square sample.
- D5. It is notable among the world’s great bridges for the number and size of its concrete towers.
- I1. Head to Seaport Village to explore charming shops, unique eateries, and diverse outdoor entertainers. Remember to tip if you take pictures.
- I2. Step aboard the world’s oldest active sailing ship. ($16 Admission)
- I3. Thirty-seven artist studios/galleries hosting daily art demonstrations featuring contemporary fine arts and crafts directly from San Diego County’s largest community of artists.
- I4. The fountain, built in 1972, serves as a tribute to park protector Bea Evenson who worked to protect the park’s architectural treasures.
- I5. Visit the house that was built where a graveyard once was. ($8 Daytime Admission; $13 Evening Admission)
- E1. With yummy, inexpensive options around every corner, find out why San Diegans think every day should be Taco Tuesday. ($5)
- E2. Constructed in 1850, this ghostly house remains the oldest structure in the Gaslamp Quarter. ($5 Admission & self-guided tour)
- E3. Free space!
- E4. Built nearly 30 years ago, The Gaslamp Quarter Archway was a symbolic declaration that the City of San Diego was committed to continuing the redevelopment of Downtown.
- E5. After some window shopping at the adjacent outdoor mall, grab a cup of joe and people-watch at this newly-renovated urban oasis.
- G1. Stop by Bub’s at the Ballpark for happy hour, a local favorite for tots and beer! (Happy Hour, M-F, 3-6 pm, half-off tots, about $7)
- G2. Locals call it the “kissing statue.”
- G3. Ride this horse-drawn chariot round and round. ($3 per ride)
- G4. The legendary hero of Spain is mounted on his horse, proudly holding a spear and shield.
- G5. This garden displays approximately 1,600 roses and more than 130 varieties on a three-acre site full of fragrance, color, and beauty.
- O1. Houses one of the world’s largest outdoor pipe organs.
- O2. Get your hands on delicious tortillas, available fresh and straight off the griddle on San Diego Avenue. ($2-$3)
- O3. Try a Margarita! Café Coyote’s certified “Tequila House” has over 120 tequila options. ($9-$16)
- O4. A “well built and sturdy” two-story, square-sided, shingle-roofed barn that once stabled horses and housed stagecoaches.
- O5. A lively and colorful entry into the Old Town community, the shops at Bazaar del Mundo feature a vast selection of treasures and specialty items from around the world.

2016 LCLD Fellows Third Meeting

Please see the back of the card for clues.

Text photos from these San Diego landmarks and experiences to Caitlin Puffenberger, LCLD Communications Coordinator, at (540) 419-5639. Use discretion, as they may be included in the Third Meeting slideshow during the closing session.

@LCLD_rgrey @LoriLCLD #FellowsSD

Tony Gwynn Statue	Unconditional Surrender Statue	Bazaar del Mundo Shops	The Gaslamp Sign	Inez Grant Parker Memorial Rose Garden
Tivoli Bar & Grill	Historic Carousel, Seaport Village	Taco Time	Ghirardelli Ice Cream & Chocolate Shop	Spreckels Organ Pavilion
Tin Roof	Spanish Village Art Center		Coronado Bridge	Hand-Made Tortillas
Horton Plaza Park	Bea Evenson Fountain	Petco Park	Street Performers	Margarita Madness
Tater Tots	Whaley House	William Heath Davis House	El Cid Statue	The Seeley Stable

- D1. Pay tribute to the San Diego icon fondly known as “Mr. Padre,” just beyond the outfield wall of Petco Park.
- D2. Gaslamp’s oldest bar! Famed lawman and San Diego legend, Wyatt Earp, was an early patron who used to come here to gamble and drink. (Most drinks under $10)
- D3. One of the best places in the Gaslamp to catch musicians playing your favorite songs live.
- D4. After some window shopping at the adjacent outdoor mall, grab a cup of joe and people-watch at this newly-renovated urban oasis.
- D5. Stop by Bub’s at the Ballpark for happy hour, a local favorite for tots and beer! (Happy Hour, M-F, 3-6 pm, half-off tots, about $7)
- I1. Locals call it the “kissing statue.”
- I2. Ride this horse-drawn chariot round and round. ($3 per ride)
- I3. Thirty-seven artist studios/galleries hosting daily art demonstrations featuring contemporary fine arts and crafts directly from San Diego County’s largest community of artists.
- I4. The fountain, built in 1972, serves as a tribute to park protector Bea Evenson who worked to protect the park’s architectural treasures.
- I5. Visit the house that was built where a graveyard once was. ($8 Daytime Admission; $13 Evening Admission)
- E1. A lively and colorful entry into the Old Town community, the shops at Bazaar del Mundo feature a vast selection of treasures and specialty items from around the world.
- E2. With yummy, inexpensive options around every corner, find out why San Diegans think every day should be Taco Tuesday. ($5)
- E3. Free space!
- E4. Architecturally magnificent, this downtown ballpark is home to the San Diego Padres. (Free; guided daily tours $15/adult)
- E5. Constructed in 1850, this ghostly house remains the oldest structure in the Gaslamp Quarter. ($5 Admission & self-guided tour)
- G1. Built nearly 30 years ago, The Gaslamp Quarter Archway was a symbolic declaration that the City of San Diego was committed to continuing the redevelopment of Downtown.
- G2. Satisfy your sweet tooth with a free chocolate square sample.
- G3. It is notable among the world’s great bridges for the number and size of its concrete towers.
- G4. Head to Seaport Village to explore charming shops, unique eateries, and diverse outdoor entertainers. Remember to tip if you take pictures.
- G5. The legendary hero of Spain is mounted on his horse, proudly holding a spear and shield.
- O1. This garden displays approximately 1,600 roses and more than 130 varieties on a three-acre site full of fragrance, color, and beauty.
- O2. Houses one of the world’s largest outdoor pipe organs.
- O3. Get your hands on delicious tortillas, available fresh and straight off the griddle on San Diego Avenue. ($2-$3)
- O4. Try a Margarita! Café Coyote’s certified “Tequila House” has over 120 tequila options. ($9-$16)
- O5. A “well built and sturdy” two-story, square-sided, shingle-roofed barn that once stabled horses and housed stagecoaches.