

First-Year Law Student Diversity Fellowship & Honeywell International Partnership Program

As part of our commitment to a Firm culture that values diversity and inclusion, McDermott Will & Emery has partnered with Honeywell International to establish a first-year diversity fellowship through the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) Scholars Program. The program offers the opportunity to participate in the 2018 Summer Associate Program with the Firm's New York office. Some participants may also be given the opportunity to return to work with McDermott the summer following successful completing of the first year fellowship. 1L LCLD Fellows will be included in all aspects of the McDermott Summer Associate Program, including our firm-wide summer associate retreat in Chicago, as well as extensive mentoring and training opportunities. In addition, 1L LCLD Fellows will be given the opportunity to work closely with Honeywell. Interested candidates should have a general interest in Litigation and Corporate law. To apply, please submit your resume, cover letter, and law school transcript.

Apply For the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity Scholars Program Here