

1L Fellowship Program

Applications are due January 11, 2019

As part of our commitment to a diverse and inclusive workforce, our 1L Fellowship Program offers a unique summer employment opportunity for students who have just finished their first year of law school. Over the eight to ten week program, 1L Fellows will work in one of our US offices and in the legal department of one of our clients. We seek students who are committed to promoting diversity and inclusion in the legal profession.

Professional Experience

Our 1L Fellows participate in the program for a total of ten weeks during the summer of 2019 ($3,700/week).

Two Tracks

- General: for students interested in working on matters across all of Latham's practice groups
- Intellectual Property Track: for students with a technical background (including a degree in engineering, computer science, chemistry, biology, or physics), and who are committed to pursuing a career in intellectual property law in our Chicago, Silicon Valley, or Washington, D.C. offices.

2018 Diversity Leadership Academy

“Latham puts its money where its mouth is. The time and dedication it takes to execute DLA shows that Latham is a leader amongst its peer firms when it comes to diversity.”

“What I enjoyed most was the relief I felt by the end. I feel less intimidated by big law.”

“Great event! So want to work for Latham!”

Diversity Leadership Academy Attendees

“We welcome this elite group of 1Ls to our Diversity Leadership Academy, with the goal of providing tools and guidance to empower future leaders in the legal profession.”

BJ Trach, Boston Litigation & Trial Partner
Global Chair of the Diversity Leadership Committee
