

2019 1L LCLD Scholars Program

Dechert LLP is a proud member of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD).

In connection with the LCLD 1L Scholars Program, Dechert encourages first-year law students to apply for 2019 Summer Associate positions in our New York, Washington, D.C. and Charlotte offices.

Some of the opportunities provided by the ten-week long Summer Program include:

- Attendance at the 1L LCLD Scholars Summit (June 4-6).
- Working directly alongside Dechert's talented and diverse lawyers.
- Exposure to high-level legal matters in various practice areas.
- Attendance of closings, depositions, hearings, oral arguments, trials, negotiations and board meetings.
- Participation in professional development trainings and social events.

Application process

If interested, please email the following materials to the appropriate contact based in your city of interest:

- Current resume.
- Transcript (not required at the outset, but please expect to provide an unofficial law school transcript later in the application process).
- Personal statement (500 words max) that describes the importance of diversity in your personal background, and how you have demonstrated a commitment to promoting diversity in the legal profession.

New York: Stephanie Roth, Attorney Recruitment Manager at stephanie.roth@dechert.com

Washington D.C. and Charlotte: Laura Creque, Recruiting Legal Personnel Administrator at laura.creque@dechert.com

Application deadline: Friday, February 1, 2019

If you have any questions, please contact Dechert's Global Director of Legal Recruiting, Daniel Vatanaviggun at daniel.vatanaviggun@dechert.com or +1 212-641-5660.
