

As part of our ongoing commitment to diversity, we are pleased to offer the Barnes & Thornburg Diversity Scholarship. Candidates must be first-year law students who demonstrate a commitment to contributing meaningfully to the diversity and inclusion goals of Barnes & Thornburg and the legal profession. The Scholarship recipient will have a paid position in the firm's summer associate program. At the completion of a successful first summer, including receipt of an offer to return to the firm for a second summer, the Scholarship recipient will receive $5,000. Scholarship recipients who return for a second summer will receive $5,000 at the completion of a successful second summer, including receipt of an offer to join the firm as an entry-level associate. Scholarship recipients that accept an entry-level associate offer will receive an additional $5,000 when they join the firm.

Interested candidates must include a resume (including undergraduate and law school GPA), cover letter (addressed to Sarah Evenson), personal statement (other), and transcript (if transcripts are not available yet, please use a place holder in order to move forward with the online application process). We will be conducting interviews before grades are received.

Candidates identified to move forward in the interview process will be contacted directly to schedule an interview.
