Position Description

King & Spalding's Atlanta, Chicago, Houston, New York, and Washington, D.C. offices seek highly qualified first-year law students to join our 2019 summer associate programs as our 2019 Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) 1L Scholars. LCLD is a national organization of corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners dedicated to creating a diverse legal profession.

The 2019 LCLD Scholars will participate in King & Spalding's 2019 summer associate program in either the Atlanta, Chicago, Houston, New York or Washington, D.C. office. The 2019 summer associate program dates have not been finalized, but we anticipate that our 2019 summer program will span at least eight weeks, beginning in May and concluding in July.

King & Spalding has over 1,000 lawyers in 22 offices across the United States, Europe, Asia, and the Middle East. King & Spalding is committed to recruit, retain, and promote talented lawyers who will contribute to the advancement of diversity within the firm and in the legal profession. To learn more about King & Spalding and our summer associate program, see www.kslaw.com.

Qualifications

Candidates must be current first-year students, have excellent academic credentials (first semester grades must be in the top 20% of the 1L class), and demonstrate a record of community service and leadership accomplishments. Candidates must have an ethnically or culturally diverse background or be a member of the LGBT community.

Application Submission Procedure

To apply for this position, candidates must complete the electronic online application form located at <http://www.kslaw.com/careers/Law-Students> and click the "Apply Online" hotlink. All applicants must indicate the following in the online application: (1) select the appropriate location in the field for "Office;" (2) select "Summer Associate" in the field for "Department," and (3) select "1L LCLD Scholar" in the field for "Position." All applications must include the applicant's resume, law school transcript,* and undergraduate transcript (unofficial copies are acceptable).

* If the law school transcript is not complete when the application is submitted, please submit the transcript as soon as it is available. Applications cannot be considered complete or reviewed until the law school transcript is received.
