

MassMutual's Law Department offers a dynamic paid summer Clerkship Program that provides talented, diverse, first-year law students from top national law schools with an exceptional opportunity to gain experience and exposure across a broad range of practice areas.

MassMutual's 1L Diversity Clerkship Program seeks to attract talented, diverse first-year law students from top national law schools. Successful applicants will have demonstrated superior academic achievement and will have distinguished themselves within their law school and communities. While we evaluate each candidate individually, we strongly prefer candidates who possess the following characteristics:

- Demonstrated academic achievement;
- Diverse background and experiences;
- Ethical and sound judgement;
- Excellent interpersonal, team and collaboration skills;
- Strong legal research, writing, analytical and communication skills;
- Inquisitive and resilient, with a positive attitude and willingness to learn;
- Demonstrated leadership capabilities.
