2019 AT&T Summer Legal Internship

The AT&T Legal Department is seeking one (1) LL.M. student to work as a summer intern in the AT&T Summer Legal Internship Program (“Program”) in our office located in New York City.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Program began over ten years ago as part of the Company’s effort to promote diversity within the legal profession. The Program is designed to provide participants with an opportunity to develop both personally and professionally, as well as to gain experience by working alongside in-house counsel in a Fortune 10 corporation. Notable benefits of the Program include:

- Participants will have a unique opportunity to see what life is like as an in-house attorney in one of the country’s largest corporations in one of the most exciting cities in the world;
- Participants will have opportunities to work on cross-border projects, participate in meetings, conduct research, draft commercial documents and legal memoranda and be exposed to a wide array of practice areas within the department, which may include Content and Programming, Corporate, Regulatory, Intellectual Property and Anti-Piracy, among others; and
- Participants will also attend outings and social functions with AT&T attorneys.

Participants are paid a competitive salary and will work approximately from late May until the beginning of August 2019. Housing is not provided and travel costs are the responsibility of the candidate.

QUALIFICATIONS

We are particularly seeking candidates with stellar academic credentials (top 30%) and with prior work experience in a law firm and/or in-house position. If interested, please submit a resume, transcript, class rank (if available), and a written statement describing the candidate’s commitment to diversity and inclusion in the legal profession (no more than 3 pages) by January 11, 2019 to Jorge C. Moros at ATTNYCLegalIntern@att.com.
