

2019 Summer Associate Program

Dorsey & Whitney LLP is seeking a first-year law students to join the 2019 summer associate program through the Dorsey Diversity Fellowship program (Minneapolis and Seattle), the Twin Cities Diversity in Practice (TCDIP) 1L Clerkship program, and the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) 1L Scholars program. Dorsey Diversity Fellowship recipients and TCDIP clerks will also be named LCLD 1L Scholars.

During the summer program, you will:

- Work on meaningful client matters;
- Receive support and mentorship to hone your legal writing skills;
- Choose from a variety of pro bono matters on which to work;
- Attend client meetings, depositions, closings, and court appearances;
- Participate in numerous seminars and training events hosted by Dorsey U, our in-house professional development group; and
- Establish meaningful relationships with your fellow summer associates and Dorsey attorneys.

Our summer associates will receive work from one or more of the following practice areas during the 10 week program: Benefits & Compensation, Corporate, Finance & Restructuring, Healthcare Transactions & Regulations, Labor & Employment, Patent, Public Finance, Real Estate, Regulatory Affairs, Tax, Trusts & Estates, Trademark, and Trial.

Are you looking for a law firm where you can develop your legal skills and continue to learn and grow throughout your career as an attorney? If so, we strongly encourage you to apply for a summer associate position.
