

2019 LCLD 1L Scholars Program

Robinson Bradshaw is dedicated to promoting an inclusive work environment in which people with different backgrounds share a commitment to our core ideals of professionalism, excellence and teamwork.

As a participant in the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity 1L Scholars Program, we offer a six-week paid internship in our Charlotte, North Carolina office, which provides first-year law students from underrepresented populations the opportunity to gain practical, hands-on experience at a large regional law firm with nationally recognized practices.

Your Summer Program Experience

- Welcome to the team! From hands-on legal work and department lunches, to training sessions and after-work activities, your summer experience will mirror that of a new associate.
- Enjoy a sense of community. We host a series of informal after-work activities that allow us to get to know one another on a personal level.
- No labels. Robinson Bradshaw does not assign summer clerks to specific practice groups or departments. This allows you to work with attorneys throughout the firm, while gaining a better understanding of Robinson Bradshaw's 40-plus practice areas.
- Network with peers. Participate in the 1L Scholars Summit from June 4-6 in Atlanta, GA.

Happy Associates

Robinson Bradshaw ranked third in Vault's national list of the 20 Best Midsize Law Firms to work for, and was ranked #2 for both firm culture and satisfaction, within the individual categories.

"From day one, the firm has shown a genuine interest in me and my professional development. The summer and first-year development programs allowed me to explore a variety of practice areas and discover my interests. As a result, I can now focus on what's most important to me: building a practice filled with work I find fascinating."
