

2019 1L LCLD Scholars Program – Washington, DC Office

Step toe & Johnson LLP is a proud member of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD). We actively support the mission of LCLD, and participate in their Pathfinder, Fellow, Scholars and 1L Mentoring programs. We've been honored to receive LCLD's Top Performer award for three years in a row.

Continuing our commitment to diversity and inclusion, we're pleased to offer the 1L LCLD Scholar Program in Washington, DC. Ideal candidates will have top academic credentials, strong writing skills, previous legal and non-legal work experience, and other interests and accomplishments reflecting leadership qualities and personal initiative. We strongly encourage qualified women, minorities, Veterans, individuals with disabilities, and members of the LGBTQ+ community to apply.

During the 10 week long Summer Program, the 1L Scholar will have the opportunity to:

- Attend the 1L LCLD Scholars Summit (June 4-6).
- Work directly alongside Step toe's talented and diverse lawyers.
- Be exposed to high-level legal matters in various practice areas.
- Attend closings, depositions, hearings, oral arguments, trials, negotiations and board meetings.
- Participate in professional development trainings and social events.
