

BUCKLEY SANDLER

Buckley Sandler LLP, in connection with our participation in the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity's 1L Scholar Program, is currently accepting applications from first year law students interested in working as Summer Associates in our Washington, DC, New York, Chicago, and Los Angeles offices. Candidates must have a demonstrated commitment to promoting diversity, demonstrated academic achievement, including an undergraduate grade point average of at least 3.5 out of a 4.0 or higher (or equivalent), and strong writing skills. Candidates must submit:

- a resume
- an unofficial undergraduate transcript
- an unofficial law school transcript (if not yet available, please submit via email at attorney.jobs@buckleysandler.com once available)
- contact information for two references, and
- a personal statement of up to 500 words describing the candidate's commitment to promoting diversity, the contribution the candidate would make to the legal profession and to Buckley Sandler in particular, professional goals, and specific interests in practice areas offered at the firm.

Submissions must be made through our online application available at https://lawcruit.micronapps.com/sup/lc_supp_app_frm.aspx?lawfirm=225&id=18.

With approximately 150 lawyers in Washington, DC, Los Angeles, San Francisco, New York, Chicago, and London, Buckley Sandler provides a full suite of regulatory, enforcement, litigation, and transactional services to a broad range of clients, including 21 of the 25 largest banks in the U.S., the top 10 credit card issuers, the top mortgage originators and servicers, numerous mid-size banks, fintech companies, private equity firms, and other investors in the financial services industry. Our mission is to help clients that are facing extensive regulatory requirements and heightened government scrutiny to overcome those challenges in a way that allows them to achieve their business goals. Our ability to help clients succeed in such an intense regulatory atmosphere has propelled Buckley Sandler to become an acknowledged leader in this field.
