

The Los Angeles office of Crowell & Moring LLP seeks a highly qualified first-year law student to join our 2019 summer associate program as our 2019 Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) 1L Scholar.

The LCLD 1L Scholar will participate in Crowell & Moring's 2019 Summer Associate Program in the Los Angeles office. The Scholar will also participate in a number of networking and mentoring opportunities organized by the LCLD, a national organization of corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners dedicated to creating a truly diverse legal profession.

This opportunity is open to current first year law students with the following qualifications:

- Excellent academic credentials; first semester grades must be in the top 25% of the class
- Highly developed organization, writing and analytical skills
- Demonstrated ties to the Los Angeles area and/or an interest in ultimately practicing law in Los Angeles
- A demonstrated commitment to advancing diversity within the legal profession
- Community service and leadership accomplishments
- Previous relevant legal employment is a plus

All applications must include: resume, cover letter, law school and undergraduate transcripts (unofficial is acceptable), and legal writing sample.

Applications should be submitted via our Applicant Tracking System at: <http://smrtr.io/RqFX>.

Please note, if your law school transcript is not complete when you submit your application, please upload your transcript as soon as it is available. Applications will not be considered complete until the law school transcript is submitted.

Application Deadline: January 15, 2019

To learn more about Crowell & Moring, please visit us online at www.crowell.com.

Crowell & Moring is an equal opportunity employer. It does not discriminate in hiring or employment on the basis of race, sex, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, personal appearance, political affiliation, marital status, family responsibilities, disability or status as a veteran.