

Vincent Mathis

EVP, General Counsel Legal

Vincent Mathis is K12's General Counsel and Secretary. Prior to joining K12, Vincent served as Senior Vice President, Corporate Affairs and Corporate Secretary for the AES Corporation, a Fortune 500 global energy company. In this role, Vincent advanced the AES policy agenda, managed corporate governance, and led a team of attorneys in providing legal counsel to the Board of Directors and cross-functional business areas. During his tenure at AES, Vincent also successfully negotiated numerous domestic and global agreements related to asset sales, vendor supply, leases, tax incentives, and human resource issues.

Before joining AES, Vincent served as General Counsel and Executive Vice President at CountourGlobal LP, as well as in legal leadership roles at Shearman and Sterling; the Securities and Exchange Commission; and Venable, Baetjer, Howard & Civiletti.

Vincent earned his law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law and his bachelor's degree from the University of Richmond. He is admitted to practice in Virginia and the District of Columbia.
