BACKGROUND

To further promote diversity in the legal profession and within our firm, Stradley Ronon Stevens & Young, LLP ("Stradley") is joining the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity ("LCLD") 1L Scholars Program for our 2020 Summer Associate Program. The purpose is to actively identify and develop exceptionally qualified diverse law students who demonstrate the characteristics needed to become future leaders in the legal profession. The program provides the recipient with training, ongoing mentoring, hands-on experience working in a law firm and corporate law department in a single summer, and the opportunity to attend the 2020 1L LCLD Scholars Summit held in Atlanta, GA, in June 2020. Successful candidates should demonstrate outstanding academic achievements, exceptional leadership qualities, and a desire to practice law at Stradley based in our Philadelphia, PA office.

PROGRAM DETAILS

- A paid 9-week or 10-week summer position (following completion of 1L/2LE studies), fulfilled through a 6-week internship with Stradley at the firm’s Philadelphia, PA office, followed immediately by a 3-week or 4-week internship with the in-house legal department of a corporate partner.
- Mentoring and support from Stradley attorneys familiar with the corporate partner before and during the recipient’s corporate internship.
- Opportunity to attend the 2020 1L LCLD Scholars Summit held in Atlanta, GA, in June 2020, which consists of panel discussions, distinguished speakers and networking opportunities for the Scholars.
- Eligibility for consideration for 2021 summer employment with Stradley.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Currently enrolled as a 1L (or 2LE) at an ABA accredited law school;
- Identify as African-American, Black, Hispanic, Asian, Native American or Alaska Native, Pacific Islander, LGBTQ, multi-racial or living with a disability (as defined by the federal Americans with Disabilities Act);
- Have an exceptional academic record;
- Have a demonstrated intention to practice law at Stradley based in our Philadelphia, PA office.

TO APPLY

Applicants must provide a resume, undergraduate transcript, law school transcript, and an essay of no more than 500 words confirming the candidate’s eligibility for the Scholars program and addressing why the applicant is best qualified for the position. Submissions should be made via email to legalrecruiting@stradley.com by Friday, January 17. Please reach out to Krystal Muñiz, Stradley’s Legal Recruiting Manager, at kmuniz@stradley.com or 215-564-8533 with any questions.
