

BAKER DONELSON

Leadership Council on Legal Diversity 1L Scholars Program

Baker Donelson is committed to fostering an inclusive environment where the individual differences among us are understood, respected and appreciated, recognized as sources of strength of the Firm, and valued as qualities that enrich the environment in which we work. With this in mind, Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz, PC is proud to participate in the 2021 LCLD Scholars Program. Our Firm has been a member of the Leadership Counsel on Legal Diversity since its inception in 2009 and is deeply committed to advancing diversity in the legal profession.

Our Firm will award three (3) LCLD Scholar positions to diverse 1L law students this summer. Recipients will be awarded a salaried 1L Summer Associate position in one of our following offices: Atlanta, GA, Baltimore, MD, Baton Rouge, LA, Birmingham, AL, Houston, TX, Jackson, MS, Knoxville, TN, Memphis, TN, Nashville, TN and New Orleans, LA. The recipients' office preferences will be taken into consideration, but final assignment will be according to the Firm's needs. The date of our Summer Associate program begins on May 10 and concludes on June 18, 2021 in. The program will conclude on July 2, 2021 in Baltimore and on July 16, 2021 in Atlanta.

To apply for a LCLD Scholar position, please submit the following information by Friday, January 29th to Helen Beasley, Recruiting Assistant, at hbeasley@bakerdonelson.com.

- Resume
- Law School Transcript (unofficial copies are acceptable)
- Cover letter indicating office of interest

For more information about our Firm, our Summer Associate Program, and our Diversity efforts, please visit our website www.bakerdonelson.com.