

Clark Hill PLC is seeking to hire a first year law student for our 2021 Summer Associate Program in Los Angeles (Labor & Employment). This student will participate in the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) 1L Scholars Program and will attend the Scholars Summit.

Clark Hill is a multidisciplinary, international law firm that draws on our attorneys' comprehensive industry and policy knowledge and a global network of industry advisors and subject-matter experts to provide innovative legal solutions and client-service excellence worldwide. Our work is guided by our deeply-held shared values, including practicality, entrepreneurship, mutual respect, diversity, ethical behavior and a commitment to client and community service.

Our 2021 Summer Associate Program will start at the end of May and last approximately 8 weeks. 1L Summer associates will be provided the same supportive, challenging work environment as that of first-year associates; no distinction is made in work assignments, client contact, development, or responsibilities.

As an ambitious individual, you have professional and personal aspirations. Clark Hill provides the work environment, the tools - and most importantly - the culture to help you achieve those aspirations. We are committed to hiring, training, mentoring and retaining the finest people who bring the right balance of professional skills and personal qualities that exemplify the Clark Hill Advantage.

Interested candidates should apply online on our careers portal by February 1, 2021. All applications must include:

- A cover letter addressing ties to office location in which you are interested
- A current resume
- Undergraduate and law school transcripts (unofficial versions are acceptable)
- A personal statement (500 words or less) explaining your commitment to diversity in the legal profession
