

First-Year LCLD Scholars Program

Osborn Maledon's commitment to excellent lawyering and public service drives us to hire and inspire exceptional attorneys and administrative professionals who reflect the diverse communities and clients we serve. We are determined to provide a professional home where people with diverse backgrounds and perspectives share their talents and successes. We are proud to support the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity ("LCLD") and the 1L LCLD Scholars Program.

Eligibility

Qualified participants must be enrolled in a J.D. program from an accredited U.S. law school with an anticipated graduation date of 2023. Top academic achievements, work and leadership experience, and excellent written and oral communication skills are required. Osborn Maledon selects LCLD Scholars who advance LCLD's overall goal of increasing diversity in the legal profession and will give preference to individuals from under-represented populations in the legal profession.

2021 Summer Program

Our LCLD Scholar(s) will be a part of our 2021 Summer Program.

Professional Development

Osborn Maledon's LCLD Scholar(s) will have the opportunity to participate in LCLD's 1L Scholar Program, which includes individual and group mentoring, an annual summit conference, and access to the national LCLD network.

To Apply

Please click here to learn more about our summer program and to submit your application. Also, please include "1L LCLD Scholar Applicant" in the comments section under additional information on your online application form. Deadline to apply is Monday, February 8, 2021.