

GENERAL: Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP (www.willkie.com) plans to hire 1L LCLD Scholars. To be eligible to apply for this Diversity Scholars Program, you must be enrolled in an ABA-accredited law school and seek to work in the Chicago, Houston, Los Angeles, New York, Palo Alto, San Francisco or Washington, DC office of our Firm. We will consider students who will graduate from law school in spring 2024. The 1L LCLD Scholar will participate in the summer program alongside our second-year law students (and receive the same compensation) and will attend the LCLD Scholars Retreat. LCLD Scholars who receive an offer to join the Firm's 2023 summer program as a 2L and return to Firm for the full summer program will be eligible to receive a $25,000 scholarship.

Willkie does not discriminate or tolerate discrimination in employment opportunities or practices on the basis of age, ancestry, citizenship status, color, disability that can be reasonably accommodated, gender, gender identity and expression, gender reassignment, pregnancy or maternity, paternity, marital or civil partnership status, caregiver status, nationality, national origin, citizenship, race, religion or belief, sexual orientation or preference, veteran's status or any other classification protected by law. This policy governs all aspects of employment, including hiring, training, nature of assignments, transfers, promotion, compensation, discipline, termination, and access to benefits.

To apply, you must submit the following items:

- A cover letter
- A Resume
- An unofficial or official law school transcript, including grades from your first semester of law school. If your complete grades are not available at the time you apply, you can supplement the application with an updated complete transcript.
