

MOORE, HILL &
WESTMORELAND, P.A.
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

LCLD 1L Scholars Program Job Posting

Moore, Hill & Westmoreland, P.A. is seeking 1L Scholar applicants to work at our Pensacola, Florida law firm during the summer of 2022. The 1L LCLD Scholar(s) will attend the virtual LCLD Scholars Summit at the beginning of June. Start and end dates for the summer program are flexible. There may also be an opportunity for the 1L Scholar to split time between our firm and an LCLD corporate member depending on the interests of the applicant and partnership with corporate members.

Applicants must be current first year law students (anticipated graduation in 2024) enrolled in an ABA-approved law school who maintain excellent academic credentials (top 30% or better law school performance preferred but not required) and possess quality communication skills, analytic ability, legal research skills, and a demonstrated commitment to diversity and inclusion. Ties to the Florida panhandle are also preferred, but not required.

All applications must include a cover letter, resume, and legal writing sample. Applications should be submitted via email to Jessica Scholl (jscholl@mhw-law.com). Please include "LCLD 1L Scholar Application" in the subject line. Applications are due by Monday, April 25, 2022.

For over 50 years, Moore, Hill & Westmoreland, P.A. has provided quality legal representation and business services to clients in Florida and throughout the United States. MHW is a broad-based civil litigation, appellate, business, and real estate law firm. Our clients range from individuals to locally owned businesses and Fortune 500 companies. We strive to offer services to our clients in areas such as commercial litigation, class action defense, pharmaceutical litigation, products liability and personal injury defense, creditor representation in bankruptcy, business transactions, community association law, construction law, employment law, real property law, insurance law, family law, and public and low income housing law. We have board-certified lawyers in both civil trial and appellate law, as well as a family law mediator. MHW's commitment to the highest degree of professionalism and community involvement is evidenced by the leadership positions our attorneys hold in the local community and within the Florida Bar on a statewide level. Our firm is active in the LCLD and shares its mission to increase diversity within the legal profession. We are dedicated to providing an inclusive environment where all are welcome and supported regardless of race, ethnicity, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, sexual orientation, genetic makeup, or background. To learn more about our firm, please visit www.mhw-law.com.