

Leadership Council on Legal Diversity 1L Scholars Program

Saul Ewing LLP and Duke University Office of Counsel are proud to participate in the 2023 LCLD 1L Scholars Program. This is a unique opportunity for a first-year law student to experience what it is like working in both law firm and in-house higher education environments. To learn more about Saul Ewing's Summer Program click here.

This position is part of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) 1L Scholars Program. 1L LCLD Scholars will also be invited to participate in the 1L LCLD Scholars Virtual Summit from May 23-25, 2023, which focuses on relationship building and career development strategies. For more information on the LCLD 1L Scholars Program, click here.

Saul Ewing and Duke will select one first-year law student to participate in a 10-week summer program, spending seven weeks working in a Saul Ewing office and three weeks in Durham, NC working in Duke's Office of Counsel. Participating Saul Ewing offices include Chicago, Philadelphia, New York and Washington, DC. Applicants should include their preferred office and practice area interests in their cover letter.

Compensation for this position is anticipated to be at least $7,083 semi-monthly (twice a month). The actual amount will be set just prior to the start of the Program.

Candidates must meet LCLD's 1L Scholar Candidate Requirements. Interested students should apply directly by email addressed to Romaisa Sulemany, Recruiting Coordinator at romaisa.sulemany@saulewing.com. Applications must include a cover letter, current resume, undergraduate final transcript, law school transcript when available and writing sample. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis through February 15, 2023.