

Bill Moore Internship with Accenture Legal

Accenture Legal is proud to continue the Bill Moore Internship, honoring Bill Moore, a valued and respected member of Accenture Legal. Bill was the Global Legal Lead for Accenture's Industry X business and a Harvard Law alum who was an incredibly talented lawyer. Bill was a mentor and friend to many Accenture colleagues around the world, and this internship celebrates Bill's passion for his work and his dedication to supporting and mentoring colleagues.

What is it?

Accenture Legal is offering:

- an 8-week paid internship
- starting in June 2022

The internship will be conducted remotely subject to continuing restrictions related to COVID-19.

Who can apply?

Applicants must be:

- A first-year law student (1L) or
- Applying to law school for the 2022-2023 academic year

A key goal of the internship is to advance the hiring, retention, and promotion of diverse attorneys working at the intersection of law and technology. We strongly encourage individuals from diverse backgrounds to apply, but the position is open to all applicants. Law school admission is required prior to starting the internship.

How to apply:

Applicants must submit all of the following:

- Resume
- Cover letter, including a brief statement (not more than 150 words) responding to the question: What does innovation mean to me?
- Evidence of law school admission or a law school transcript (for 1Ls) and
- Two (2) references

Applications will be accepted now through January 31, 2022. Please submit any questions and all application documents to billmooreinternship@accenture.com. We look forward to hearing from you!
